You are associated with Infini Institute from its inception, i.e. since 2014 in various capacities. You are always maintained popularity among post graduate students as a popular trainer of Corporate Life Skills course. You are one of our best trainers. Besides training, you are instrumental in introducing unique initiative of creative learning methodology - training through Theatre technique. You not only trained students in team building skills but could get some of the major live events done by them such as inaugural program, opening day program. You witnessed them sometime by anchoring the event!

You designed and delivered faculty & staff development/engagement programs for infin team. Your involvement in our marketing and business development initiatives in the form of seminars and drama- "Ek Din Achanak" helped reaching out to people.

You were the part of the trainers' team deputed on 6 month Skill Enhancement project in Oman for Omani Nationals in year 2014. You received a special recognition by organizers for your contribution.

By passion you are into this corporate training and I rank you in top grade as a trainer. I wish you all the best.

Best regards,
